And it was in the days of the ones judging, one from (one of) the ones judging went forth from his land, and he went to the city of the prophets, and he dwelt there. And the one judging entered a house of a prophet in order to speak to him.

And the prophet said to the one judging, saying, “Draw near to me and I will make known to you many words concerning the people of Israel. For I am knowing that the LORD sent you to me in order that I may speak these words. And now hear my voice and remember my word and go and proclaim the word to the people of your land.” And the one judging worshiped in the presence of the LORD in that day.
